Magistrate Judge of the United States District Court

Warrens/Toll Bros. v. NCC
Civil Action No. 07-CV-725-JRS – LPS

Dear Magistrate Judge Stark:

I represent Plaintiffs Gary C. and Gale B. Warren and Toll Bros., Inc. in this case. My corresponding counsel are Marc Kaplin, Esquire and Barbara Anisko, Esquire, each of whom has been admitted pro hac in this case.

The Court has scheduled a teleconference commencing at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, March 26, 2008.

I am scheduled to be present at an oral argument before the Supreme Court of Delaware in which I represent the parties which were Third-Party Defendants. Although the appeal does not directly involve my clients and myself, my clients and I intend to attend the oral argument because the decision therein will directly impact upon the issues set forth in the Third Party Complaint.

In light thereof, rather than requesting that the teleconference be rescheduled, I am writing to inquire if the Court will excuse me from participating in the teleconference and allowing my corresponding pro hac counsel to participate without my presence.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jeffrey M. Weiner, Esquire #403
